

Input Handler

This function initializes all the variables required for handling the input.

Cracking

The cracking process starts according to the provided parameters.

Password Found

Password Found

When a new password is discovered , all the other cores are notified from the core that found it.

Output Handler

All the passwords that have been cracked are collected and stored into the output file.

